

Look out for Sequoia's Read-a-thon coming your way February 2-13!

We have a fun-filled week planned for you as you raise money while you read (or are read to).

Some events headed your way:

1) RIF Day on February 5, 2010:

Every Child chooses a free book to bring home.

2) Family Reading Night on February 10, 2010:

Bring your family out for an evening of pizza, stories, a free book and raffle prizes galore hosted by Friends of the Oakland Public Library! Our book fair will also run at the end of the evening, if you want some good deals on books.

3) Scholastic Book Fair February 8-12:

Find great book deals during lunch hours from February 8-12, afterschool on February 10, and at the end of the Family Reading Night.

4) D.E.A.R./Guest Reader Day:

Come to school dressed in pj's or your favorite storybook character. You will have two guest readers coming in to your class, sharing the excitement of their jobs and reading in their lives (maybe an author or comic artist will visit, or a musician). The rest of the day you'll make a fort in your classroom, cuddle with a pillow, and read, read, read, books of your choice!

Thursday, February 12 all READING PACKETS WILL BE RETURNED TO School and if you brought in at least 10 donations, you'll receive a prize on the next day (Friday, Feb. 13).

Sequoia's Read-a-thon is on its way...

Get ready for some fun!
